PULASKI, TENN.,
FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 11th, 1866

DENTISTRY.—Dr. BUCKLEY, of Nashville, will be in Pulaski, Monday next, to remain one week. Those wishing dental work had better avail themselves of this opportunity.

Fresh Arrivals.
Just received at John D. Flautt & Co's.,
160 Barrels Flour, all grades,
Sugars, Molasses,
Large Lot of Tennessee Iron,
" Iron Axes,
Buckeye Mowing & Reaping Machines
Harvest Cradles and Scythes,
10 Double Barrel Guns, English twist
and laminated steel.

The flour was bought just before the recent advance, and is being sold just as heretofore.

Donations Solicited.
The Benevolent Association of this county is unwilling that we should be behind others in our charities toward the maimed soldiers; and the ladies hope their efforts to ameliorate the condition of our heroes may be seconded by the entire community. Donations are therefore solicited from every man and woman who entertains a charitable impulse toward these unfortunate braves. It is not important that these donations be made in money exclusively. Anything will be acceptable, "from a pound of wool to a bale of cotton—from a blooded terrier to a blooded charger." The donations, no matter what they are, or how trivial they may be, can be converted into cash for the use of the soldiers. It is hoped that our citizens will respond to this call in a spirit worthy the liberal and patriotic people of Giles.

The Contested Collectorship.
The contested election case between H. P. McMillon and H. H. Aymett was decided on Wednesday last before—Frieron Esq'r., of Columbia, who occupied the bench temporarily, by consent of counsel, in place of Judge Ward. The case, as reported to us, may be stated as follows: McMillon was elected Tax-Collector in March, 1864, but did not qualify and give bond until October, 1865, and he claimed that he was entitled to hold the office under that section of the Act which provide that the Tax Collector "shall continue in office for two years from the date of his qualification." His counsel did not contest the validity of Aymett's election in March last, but claimed that he could not enter upon the duties of the office until October, 1867, or two years after McMillon's qualification.

Counsel on the other side argued that in his failure to qualify at the time prescribed in a previous section of the same act above referred to, McMillon forfeited the office or at least forfeited or lost so much of his term (two years) as had expired between the time he should have qualified (1st Monday in April, 1864,) and the time he did qualify, (1st Monday in October, 1865.)

The Judge decided that McMillon's term expired at the end of two years from the day he should have qualified, and that Aymett is now the Tax-Collector, his term having commenced the 1st Monday in April.

MUSIC.—We have received a musical production of Charlie Ward's, entitled, "The Conquered Flag," companion to "Faded Gray Jacket." It is equal in every respect to the best productions of the day, and may be found at D. P. Faulds', Louisville, Ky.

Another Benevolent Association.
We are glad to announce to the maimed Confederates that another society has been formed among the young ladies of the county to supply them with limbs. The limbs are ready for delivery, and were invented and made by a Master Mechanic. The are said to be God's best gifts to man. Apply to any of the girls and obtain new arms and better arms.

President Johnson in Pulaski.

Altercation between him and Neill Brown. He is Stabbed! Conflict of Authority. His antagonist the Genl. from Africa! Great excitement! The President will Recover.

There was a rencontre on the street last Monday evening between L. J. Johnson, President of the Equal Rights Colored League of Giles County, and Neill Brown, President of some other Colored Society, growing out of a conflict of authority as to the handling of certain funds, now being raised by tax on the colored population for sanitary purposes, in which President Johnson was stabbed just below the stomach with a pocket knife in the hands of Neill. The wound is about three inches deep, but is not dangerous. The belligerents were carried before Esquire Abernathy and fined $10 each.

Cook, Becker & Co.

Honest men are sometimes found in bad company, and perhaps we have unintentionally done injustice to one member of the above firm. We give him the benefit of two columns for a correction:

Memphis, April 19th, 1866.
SIR—An article in your paper came under my observation, in which you take up on yourself the task of criticising the firm of Cook, Becker & Co formerly of your city. You do me gross injustice by remarking that "they were birds of passage, and only remained long enough to swindle the community." By referring to the citizens you will find that all my dealings were honest and upright. What transpired after I withdrew from the firm, I am not responsible for. I respectfully request that you make the correction in your columns, and forward a copy of same to my address.

F. W. BECKER.
We would not do Mr. Becker an injury. Upon inquiry we find that he had withdrawn from the firm before their open rascality had commenced.

A bill has just passed the Senate which takes the entire police control of the cities of Memphis, Nashville and Chattanooga out of the hands of the municipal authorities of those cities and vests it in commissioners appointed by the Governor.

Wonder if the bill could not be so amended as to include Pulaski? If the commissioners should give us any police regulations at all, it would be more than we have now.

To KILL ANTS—Hit your uncle's wife on the head with a hammer.

Benevolent Association.

The following ladies have been appointed as officers and managers of the Tennessee Benevolent Association, at Pulaski, to co-operate with the same at Nashville:

Mrs. OPHELIA SPOFFORD, Vice President.

Mrs. FRANK CARTER, Secretary.

Mrs. MATTIE ROBE, Treasurer.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH:

Mrs. THOS. M. JONES, Mrs. JNO. C. BROWN,

Mrs. DR. BAYNE, Mrs. DANIEL CARTER.

METHODIST CHURCH:

Mrs. WELBORN MOORE, Mrs. G. W. PETWAY,

Mrs. J. H. LESTER, Mrs. P. H. ECKEL.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH:

Mrs. RUTH WHITE, Mrs. DR. EDMONDSON,

Mrs. ROBERT SCOTT, Mrs. JAS. McCALLUM.

CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH:

Mrs. THOMAS WHITE, Mrs. ALBERT BYRD,

Mrs. JAMES SMITH, Mrs. LINDSEY.

AUCTION AND COMMISSION.—We would call special attention to the character of business conducted by Messrs. PERKINS & Co., auction and commission merchants. They propose to give great bargains, and warrant everything as represented. Their house is on the West side of the Public Square, North end of Tennessee House.

WHERE they will at all times be pleased to see their friends and the public generally. Jan 12

Opinions of Distinguished Business Men.

"Advertising your business. Do not hide your light under a bushel. Whatever your calling or occupation may be, if it needs support from the public, advertise it thoroughly and efficiently in some shape or other, that will arrest public attention. Truly confess that what success I have had in my daily business has been due to the public press that has nearly all the other causes combined. There may possibly be occupations that do not need advertising, but I cannot conceive what they are.—F. T. BARNES.

"I have always considered advertising liberally and long to be the great medium of success in business, and the pride to wealth. And I have always made it an invariable rule, too, to advertise in the earliest times a long experience having taught me that money thus spent is well laid out as by keeping my business continually before the public, has secured me many sales that I otherwise would have lost.—STEPHEN GILMAN.

"Whatever success I may have had in business I owe mainly to constant advertising, and I deem it good policy to advertise long in the same papers. From a close observation I am fully convinced that it is impossible to make much headway in any kind of business, without the facilities which the press can give.—JACOB KNOXWAY.

"My motto through life has been, work and advertise. In business, advertising is the true philosopher's stone, that turns whatever is touched to gold. I have advertised much, both in the weekly as well as the daily papers; nor have I found that those of the largest circulation, of either class, benefited me the most.—JOHN JACOB ABERNETHY.

"Advertise, advertise, advertise! This is the life of trade; and standing advertisements, you will find, will prove the most remunerative, at least I have found it so during my business career thus far; for should you withdraw but a single week from the paper in which you are accustomed to advertise, ten to one that would be the time when some would be new customers will look into the paper for your business address, and not finding it, you will lose several profitable sales.—WILLIAM GRAY.

RATES OF POSTAGE.

In consequence of the general ignorance in the South of the rules of postage established by law, many letters of importance are daily lost to those interested by being improperly or insufficiently stamped. The regulations require that all letters forwarded to the Dead Letter Office, when they are never heard from unless they contain money, or other enclosures of value. We give below some information which may prevent vexation to correspondents:

The rate of postage on letters within the United States is 2 cents for every letter or sealed package weighing one-half ounce or under. Those over one-half ounce, 3 cents, and 4 cents for every additional half-ounce. Postage with stamps in all cases is required. All letters without the necessary postage stamps, or which are stamped with revenue stamps, will be forwarded to the Dead Letter Office immediately after being dropped into any post office.

Postage stamps issued prior to 1859 are worthless, and will not answer for present purposes.
